

$51 Billion to Be Spent on Defense in '64

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
Associated Press Writer

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson has decided to spend about $51 billion on defense next year.

The big question today was how acceptable is this to the nation's military commanders who had wanted a $60 billion? Johnson had a budget session Monday with the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Deputy Secretary Roswell L. Gilpatrick.

McNamara had a chance to talk about it afterward. The top commanders of the armed forces didn't, although the White House had billed them for a news conference.

McNamara told reporters all the loose ends aren't pulled together yet, but that the new defense budget will be about $51 billion—a billion less than the spending estimate for the present fiscal year ending June 30.

"This $1 billion savings," he said, "can be made without in any way reducing the defenses of this nation. As a matter of fact, I believe that the budget that will be submitted to the Congress will yield defenses superior to those in any other time in our history in peacetime."

The Joint Chiefs of Staff will have an opportunity to speak later before congressional appropriations committees.

Johnson had said the Joint Chiefs would have a chance at Monday's meeting to appeal reductions in the amounts they originally recommended.

Five Arkansans Contract Tetanus

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A 23-year-old Jamestown housewife was the only one of five Arkansans who contracted tetanus this year, to survive the disease, it was reported by Dr. William Bunch, Jr., director of the state Health Department's Division of Communicable Disease Control.

Bunch said the woman contracted the disease last month after she punctured the palm of her hand with a toothpick when she crushed a plastic bag she found in her yard.

Bunch said the woman was hospitalized for 10 days but probably had enough immunity to avert death.

Christmas, New Years, Fairly Close

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Bob Hope celebrates New Year's Eve tonight just like everyone else. But it's only 24 hours since he celebrated Christmas.

The comedian, loaded down with gifts—a Turkish rug, a camel's saddle and a scimitar—arrived home Monday night from a nine-day, 16,000-mile tour entertaining servicemen in the Mediterranean area.

For the 22nd year, Hope missed Christmas with his family because he was entertaining troops. He celebrated Christmas Monday night, instead.

"He looks wonderful," said Hope's wife, Dolores. She met him at the airport with three of their children, Linda, Nora and Kelly. Their fourth, Tony, accompanied Hope on the trip.

"The change was miraculous," said an aide. "His health is thriving—a lot better than when he left."

Hope had to delay his departure two days because of an alling left eye for which he recently underwent treatment. When he left, he was still wearing peepers dark glasses with pinholes in the lenses permitting him to see in only one direction. He had them off when he got home.

That was after a grueling trip in which he entertained some 50,000 American, Turkish, Greek and Italian servicemen and their dependents.

Hope traveled by Military Air Transport Service plane to Turkey, Greece, Italy and Libya. With him were actress Tuesday Weld, actor Peter Leeds, Phil Crosby, Jerry Colonna, John Bubbles, Les Brown, the Earl twins and singer Anita Bryant.

Man Charged n Armed Robbery

TRUMANN, Ark. (AP)—A warrant charging Tommy Martin Edwards, 47, of Springfield, Mo., with armed robbery in connection with the holdup Sunday of 13 Trumann residents was mailed Monday night to Missouri authorities by Deputy Prosecutor Henry Wilson of Trumann.

Edwards is being held at Kennett, Mo., after his arrest near there Sunday night by a Missouri State Trooper.

Four men hid in a secluded cabin near Trumann and robbed the residents one by one as they arrived for a fish-fry. First estimates reported nearly $7,000 taken but these were later reduced to about $4,000.

Edwards was carrying $2,569 in cash and a .45 pistol when arrested. Sheriff Ray Holmes and one of the victims went to Kennett Monday where the victim identified Edwards as one of the holdup men.

Wilson said filing of the Arkansas charges against Edwards would clear the way for extradition proceedings.

Mrs. LeCount Is Buried Tuesday

Mrs. Evalena Appleman LeCount, 70, died Sunday at her home near Rosston. She was a member of the Methodist Church.

Survivors include three sons, Walter Heading of Rosston, Charles Heading of Belflower, Calif., Leo Heading of Norwalk, Calif.; a brother, George Appleman of Sidney, Ohio; two sisters, Mrs. Henry Wirtz of California, Mrs. Tom Beasley of Belflower.

Services were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Oakcrest Chapel by the Rev. Joe Jones. Burial was to be in Mt. Olive Cemetery at Oakcrest.

Engineer Dies

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—George Pettit, who had been Hot Springs city engineer since 1962, died Monday in a Hot Springs hospital after an illness of one week. He was 74.

Death Toll Far Below at This Time

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

New Year's holiday motor travel, as reflected by the number of deaths in accidents, was running far below that of an ordinary day today.

At 11 a.m. EST, 11 hours after the count started at midnight in the Eastern Standard Time zone, only four fatalities were reported. The 48-hour holiday period covered by the count will end at 12:01 a.m. Thursday.

The traffic volume was expected to rise at sundown when New Year's Eve merry-makers start their rounds. The drinking that is traditional with this holiday added to driving hazards.

The National Safety Council did not estimate the number of persons who could lose their lives in traffic accidents during the 48-hour period. But it said between 140 and 180 highway fatalities might occur between 6 p.m. today and midnight Wednesday.

An Associated Press survey for a non-holiday period of 48 hours, from 12:01 a.m. Dec. 10 to 12:01 a.m. Thursday, Dec. 12, showed 170 traffic deaths.

Rockefellers Are Expecting

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. and Mrs. Nelson A. Rockefeller said today they are expecting the birth of a child in June.

The announcement was issued through the office of the governor, a candidate for the Republican nomination for president next year.

It said simply: "Gov. and Mrs. Rockefeller today announced the expected arrival of a child in early June of 1964."

The 40-year-old playwright was found unconscious in a Dublin street early Monday. Police are trying to determine whether he fell or was the victim of a hit-and-run driver.

Methodist Jr. Choir Gives a Musical

The Wesley Choir of the Methodist Church gave a musical program Monday, December 30, for the Hempstead and Hope Nursing Homes.

Mrs. E. R. Brown was the accompanist and soloists were Douglas Byrd, Gail Forrester, Mary Lou Huckabee, and Peggy McIver.

Other members of the choir who participated were: Kevin Guerin, Ruth Alice Edwards, Connie Hendrix, Ralph Routon, Beth Gilbert, Mary Young, Peter Guerin, Steve Routon, Jack Turner, Paul Young, Kathy Smith.

The group sang, "Infant Holy," "The Friendly Beasts," and "In Bethlehem 'Neath Starlit Skies." Paul Young, Beth Gilbert, and Gail Forrester gave a choral reading Luke 2:8-16.

The group returned to the Children's Building where they were served cakes and cookies by Mrs. Julian Field, Mrs. A. W. McIver, Mrs. Wade Gilbert, and Miss Kathleen Broach.

Hit and Run Victim Better

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP)—Brendan Behan was reported "fairly comfortable but still pretty ill" today.

The 40-year-old playwright was found unconscious in a Dublin street early Monday. Police are trying to determine whether he fell or was the victim of a hit-and-run driver.

Farm Prices 76 Per Cent of Parity

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Farm product prices will close the year at the lowest level since August 1939 in relation to parity—the price standard set up by federal farm aid programs.

An Agriculture Department report Monday said farm prices had dipped to 76 per cent of parity.

Parity is the measure of the prices farmers receive for their products in comparison for the prices they have to pay for equipment, supplies, services and the like.

Farm prices ended 1962 at 79 per cent of parity. A month ago they were at 77 per cent. For 1963 as a whole they average 78 per cent of parity compared with 79 in 1962. The highest level on the parity standard ever reached by farm prices was 12 per cent in October, 1946.

A 5 per cent dip in meat animal prices between November and December was the major factor in pulling farm markets to the low parity level.

Prices paid by farmers for goods and services used in production and family living eased off one-third of 1 per cent in December, but for the year as a whole they were nearly 2 per cent higher than in 1962.

Auxiliary of Band to Buy New Uniforms

The Hope High Band Auxiliary is launching a campaign to secure new uniforms for the senior band members. Mrs. Haskell Jones announces that the school system has agreed to assume certain financial obligations connected with the operation of the band, such as music, instrument care.

This means the auxiliary will concentrate on the purchase of new uniforms, new instruments, and other band related expenses such as travel.

The auxiliary is now out of debt and has taken $1,500 of its current assets and placed them in a new uniform fund. Several different uniforms are being screened by the Auxiliary before a selection will be made. They have concluded however that a minimum of $100 will be required to purchase a uniform that offers quality and durability.

For the 55 uniforms needed, $5,500 must be raised or pledged. Therefore, $4,000 is needed. It is hoped by the auxiliary that much of this will come from local firms, organizations, and individuals.

Bob Lewis, Dr. Harold Brents, Frank King, and Jim Lowder comprise the committee to raise these funds. Contact any of these if you will "Give the Band a Hand."

New Push on for Cotton Legislation

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new push for cotton legislation is expected to be made by the agriculture department's advisory committee on cotton scheduled to meet here Jan. 6 and 7.

Any recommendations by the committee would come just at the time Congress will convene for the 1964 session.

Appointed by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, the 30-member committee may make a choice between the so-called Cooley Cotton Bill passed by the House recently and the Talmadge-Humphrey Bill.

The Cooley Bill would authorize payment of subsidies to mills to enable them to buy cotton at prices competitive with foreign mills, which get the benefit of an export subsidy.

The Talmadge-Humphrey Bill would allow cotton prices to drop to the world price level.

A New Year Starts Tonight at Midnight

By BERNIE GOULD

Associated Press Writer

The new year starts at midnight tonight with world leaders expressing hope that it will be a peaceful one.

The celebration will range from the solemnity of prayer to the whoopee-making noises of revelers.

In Italy, they'll throw junk from windows and doors to symbolize removing old and undesired things to make way for the new. It's illegal, but it's also traditional.

In New York's Times Square, a million or more people are expected to brave frigid weather and watch the dropping of a lighted ball down a 70-foot spire of the Allied Chemical building (formerly the Times Tower) at precisely midnight. The annual event will be televised.

Still millions of others will crowd into nightclubs, hotels and private homes the world over for fun and cheer—bottled and otherwise.

The main concourse of New York's Grand Central terminal—normally the scene of hurrying train commuters—has been converted into a balloon-filled ballroom for a New Year's Eve charity dance.

Japan's Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda and Soviet Premier Khrushchev exchanged New Year's greetings.

"I hope people of the world will make further efforts in 1964 toward realization of world peace and security of mankind," Ikeda said.

Khrushchev expressed a desire for closer ties between the two nations and for peace in the Far East.

West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard told President Johnson in a telegram he hoped the new year "will bring us closer to our mutual goals."

Premier Enar Gerhardsen of Norway, in a New Year's radio address to his people, said President Johnson "wants lessening of tensions and disarmament under international control."

The premier, a Socialist, added: "He also wants a peaceful world where the resources are used rationally to the benefit of the whole human race."

In the United States, churches scheduled "watch night" services New Year's Eve to pause for reflection and redemption.

Hoopla and hijinks were on tap elsewhere, and the revelers will pay up to $35 per person in commercial night spots.

First Tissue Is Poduced

CROSSETT, Ark. (AP)—The first tissue ever produced in Arkansas was being converted into tissue products and packaged Monday at the Crossett plant of the Georgia-Pacific Corp.

A machine rolled off the state's first tissue Sunday morning and company officials said they were pleased with its quality. They said they hope a second tissue producing machine can be in operation soon.

The two machines will be capable of converting between 85 to 90 tons daily. When completed, the tissue plant will represent an investment of about $9 million, and the work force will be about 175.

Tensions of Cold War May Ease in 1964

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

A.P. Diplomatic Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Cold war tensions between Russia and the West should continue to decline in 1964. But the new year is expected to bring a sharpening of the conflict between Russia and Communist China with an unpredictable impact on world affairs.

Officials of the new administration of President Johnson are optimistic about the outlook for East-West efforts to strengthen peace.

If initial probings go well, particularly in disarmament negotiations, a meeting between Johnson and Soviet Premier Khrushchev stands high on the list of international possibilities even though it will be a U.S. presidential election year.

Political observers here think it possible that Johnson, who presently has no summit plans, would find a summit session useful for dramatizing his declared interest in seeking more peaceful East-West relations.

Johnson already has said he would go anywhere anytime he felt a meeting with another world leader would have constructive results.

He might find it desirable, too, to have a session with French President Charles de Gaulle.

At the moment he does not think special effort on his part would accomplish anything.

Domestic problems which seem destined to dominate the President's 1964 schedule include civil rights legislation, a bill to cut federal taxes, a shakeup in the worldwide foreign aid program, and a reorganization of the U.S. role in the Alliance for Progress in Latin America.

Johnson has to find some way to make the latter two programs more appealing to Congress.

In international affairs Johnson has taken on a heritage of difficulties, in spite of—or some officials say because of—the improvement in Washington-Moscow relations.

The Atlantic Alliance is growing weaker over internal differences including France's going alone policies in Europe and the split over U.S.-West German efforts to set up a nuclear missile fleet for operation in European waters.

Romney to Tell About GOP Goals

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Gov. George Romney will appear Jan. 7 before the National Press Club in Washington to speak on Republican national goals, he said today.

"I will speak of the opportunity we have as Republicans to establish the right programs to meet the nation's need," he told his news conference.

He said he is stepping up his acceptance of invitations to speak on national topics as part of his effort "as an individual who wants to see the right things done nationally."

The announcement touched off questioning on whether he was moving closer to presidential candidacy or to a position in the top policy-making echelon of the party.

He repeated a statement he first made 18 months ago: "I will not be a candidate for the nomination—I won't seek it." He said his position in this had not changed.

Romney earlier announced he would attend a dinner in his honor at Salt Lake City Jan. 17 and speak at a Jan. 21 fundraising event for the party in Washington D.C.

Park Turned Into a Park Jungle

NEW YORK (AP)—Domestic cats gone wild have turned Central Park's bird sanctuary into a private jungle.

Evicted from mid-Manhattan apartments, the cats have found good hunting among the park's song birds and migratory ducks.

A park worker said Monday that 47 cats were trapped this year and 26 last year.

Gillian - Cornett Vows Exchanged

In a simple ceremony in the Guy Bayne home Friday evening, December 27 Miss Virginia Cornett became the bride of A. J. Phillip Arthur Gilliam. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cornett of Tampa, Florida, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Guy E. Bayne of Hope and the late Jess W. Gilliam.

The Rev. B. J. Willhite, pastor of the First Assembly of God Church, performed the double-ring ceremony before an improvised altar of white mums, white stocks, greenery and lighted tapers. The couple knelt on a prie Dieu at the conclusion of the ceremony.

A white brocade suit with matching accessories was the choice of the bride for her wedding ensemble. Her veil was attached to a small white hat, and she carried white rosebuds centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Kenneth Gilliam of Arkadelphia was the matron of honor. She was gown in yellow and carried a nosegay of white roses.

Kenneth Gilliam of Arkadelphia phia served his brother as best man.

Mrs. Basye, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in blue and pinned an orchid corsage at her shoulder.

A reception was held in the home after the wedding. The dining table was overlaid with white linen and centered with white stocks, greenery and white candles, all in milk glass. Mrs. Ray Jones served the wedding cake, and Mrs. H. A. Spraggins poured the punch. Mrs. Jack Fountain had charge of the bride's book.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Simmons, Mrs. Charles Adams, Miss Georgia Bankston, all of Malvern; Miss Lynn Coleman of Arkadelphia; and Don Ellen of Monroe, La.

The newlyweds will make their home in Fort Worth, where the bridegroom is stationed with the U.S. Air Force.

Centerville 4-H Club Installs New Officers

The Centerville 4-H Club had a combination parents night and installation of new officers Friday, December 27 in the Community Building.

The meeting was opened with a welcome speech by Virgil McNatt. The group sang "America" and two 4-H Songs led by Frankie King followed by a prayer given by Barbara Piercy. The installation was then held by candlelight service and office pins were given out by the main leader, Murline Fuaght.

County Agent, Mr. Caledwell, explained to the club about the drawing of the pig which was won by Jimmy Langston. Carolyn Beck gave a reading, and Barbara Piercy gave a poem. Brenda Underwood gave a demonstration. The Clubs new trio, Barbara Piercy, Pat and Frankie King and Carolyn Beck gave two special numbers.

Murline Fuaght then awarded Carolyn Beck a bracelet for being the County Champion 4-H Girl, also the club awarded Murline with a bracelet for being their main leader. Pat King closed the meeting with prayer. Refreshments were served to 15 members and 15 visitors.

Trimble Reveals He Will Run

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. James W. Trimble, D-Ark., has ended speculation that he might not run for another term in Congress.

Trimble, who recently has been in ill health, said Saturday that he definitely plans to run for another term. He said his physician says he is in "pretty good shape" and added that he personally feels "pretty good." The announcement also apparently ends reports that Gov. Orval E. Faubus might run for the Third District post. Faubus told a friend that if Trimble retired he would run for the seat.

SLEUTHING GRANDMA THREATENS NEW YEAR'S FESTIVITIES
By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: I am 21 but my grandmother and parents treat me as if I were a child.

I've been dating a very fine boy—my family thought him the most wonderful man in the world until we became serious. After that they couldn't find anything right with him. My grandmother started it all by telling Mom that my boy friend was a no-good, didn't like anyone in our family and his only reason for dating me was our money. His family has more than we'll ever hope to have. They are the leading citizens of our town. As if this wasn't enough damage to our romance, Grandmother followed us every time we went out. My boy friend would no longer speak to her. This made the whole family mad.

Grandmother is an alcoholic and has caused more trouble in our family already than you can ever imagine. Due to her every one of her four children has had break-ups in their marriages—some permanent; others, like my parents' spats, temporary. Yet, after all the unhappiness Grandma has caused them, they still stick together as a family so they've all ganged up against my boy friend.

With chips up, my boy friend and I announced our engagement. But Grandma still meddles and it's reached the point where neither he nor I can forgive her. Since I live at home with my father, mother, brother and grandmother, this constant friction is getting us.

I know he's the right boy for me. We share the same tastes, ideals and goals. The only time we ever argue is when I revert to being the little girl my family wants me to remain. He says, "Grow up!" But that's not easy when your family has dominated you all your life.

How can I iron out all these difficulties? The way things are New Year's will be anything but happy. —S.

Dear S.: Make freedom of thought and action your No. 1 resolve for the New Year. Start as of now by telling your family—including Grandma—that at 21 you are entitled to lead your own life and the sooner they accept the idea, the better they should take it in the spirit you mean it, if said with a smile and live in your heart. Say you'd like to spend New Year's Eve and day with them provided they accept your fiancé as one of the home circle. Otherwise you and he will go elsewhere.

If you can be firm and keep your temper, the battle is half won. I say half because your declaration of independence will amount to nothing unless you become financially independent.

Decide what type of work you are best qualified for then go after it. Preferably it should be in another city, even if you are temporarily separated from your fiancé. Otherwise Grandma will still be lurking in the shadows. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Travel While You Work."

Dear Helen: I honestly feel that I no longer like my husband and it's necessary to like before you can love. I just don't want his caresses. We've never had this problem before. As a former psychology major I should understand the why but can't. Thinking about it only mixed me up all the more.

I had two children by a previous marriage and we now have a darling nine-months-old baby girl. My husband is a good man who looks out for us all. We've been married two years. He is 40, I am 24 and yearn for people my own age. We never see anyone and have nothing in common. Please help! —Unhappy

Dear Unhappy: There is such a thing as duty in this world. Once you assume a responsibility—and marriage is a big responsibility—it is your duty to see it through unless conditions are bad enough to warrant a divorce. You say your husband is a good man who provides well

People in News Over the World

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP)—Eight crewmen of the French freighter Capitaine Louis Malbert were reported drowned or missing early today after the ship collided in a thick fog with a Danish tanker and sank.

The Danish Naval Command reported Danish, Swedish and Soviet vessels had picked up 19 survivors from the 4,261-ton freighter. The ship's owners said the ship carried a crew of 27.

The tanker, the 12,410-ton Rosborg, escaped with minor damage, and sent out two boats to help in the rescue effort.

Both boats disappeared in the fog, but the Danish sailors later were reported safe.

The collision occurred in the Kattegat Sound between Sweden and Denmark. The French captain tried to beach his ship in shallow water, but the freighter sank five miles short of the Lille Middle Ground banks north of Anholt Island.

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP)—A new volcanic island is believed forming off Iceland's south coast.

Three new underwater volcanoes began erupting Sunday about 13 miles off the Vestmannaeyjar Islands, a mile north of the active volcanic island of Surtsey, which formed Nov. 14.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union has promised to help Algeria attain an independent economy.

The Soviet news agency Tass, announcing this Sunday night, did not specify any new Soviet loans to the North African nation. The Russians granted the Algerian government a $100 million loan in September.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The Nationalist Chinese command on Quemoy Island has proclaimed a 3-day cease-fire Dec. 31-Jan. 2.

The purpose, he said, is to enable the Chinese Communist forces "to celebrate the new year as servicemen in the Republic of (Nationalist) China do."

Cease-fires on special occasions are usually between the Nationalists on Quemoy and the Communists who shell them sporadically from the mainland. Sometimes the Nationalists take the initiative; sometimes the Communists act first.

There was no major Communist shelling of the offshore islands in 1963.

No Artist But a Good Painter

By JOY STILLLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—I may not be an artist, but I certainly am a painter.

I don't paint still life, though, or landscapes or abstracts or even portraits. I paint furniture.

My husband isn't surprised anymore to find that the chest of drawers which was an unobtrusive gray when he left for work has become shiny black by the time he returns home.

I have to restrain myself in redecorating the living room, because upholstery and paints aren't very compatible, but I did once change a gray chair into a green one with a fabric spray.

In the rest of the house anything is fair game. When I get in a painting mood everything from door knobs to switch plates is likely to take on new and strange hues.

When my daughter decided that she had outgrown her pink room and wanted something more sophisticated as befitting her 13 years, I was really beside myself with enthusiasm.

Out came the spray can and on went the paint. At present everything from her desk to her television set is white, flecked with gold, including a few things which looked better in their natural state, such as a shelf full of books and my hair, both now speckled.

As for the walls, she decided they should be turquoise.

After I found out that the paint I was using was the kind that will cover anything, there was no stopping me. Every object in the room which wasn't white became turquoise.

As for my son's belongings, his bookcase, chest and desk started out a cheery bright red, but as he grew older I altered them to gray when his walls were gray; and to sandalwood when the room was repainted that color.

Hardly a piece of furniture in the house is so poor that it can boast only one coat of paint. But I'm sure the laundry hamper I've had most of my married life can claim the record.

It was pink when I got it. I made it a nice clinical white. Then I went through a phase of having the bathroom color scheme tones of gray and black. The hamper spent a year or so in mourning, but finally I decided to brighten things up with yellow towels—and a yellow hamper.

Recently there was a little paint left when I finished my daughter's room, and it seemed like a shame to waste it. So now that hamper is turquoise.

field Jerome, 45, committed suicide by jumping from a freeway overpass into the path of two cars Saturday night.

She worked as a writer and executive producer in the television series, "Underground USA," and wrote under the name of Alyce Canfield.

XX

Benedict unbuttoned his greatcoat, threw it open and placed his left hand on the hilt of his sword. "I trust that you have no objections to me because of the slight difference in my age and that of Betsy."

"You're old enough to be her father," Mrs. Deblois said with a faint smile. "but I have no desire to quibble with you. She has other suitors of middle years, and I find none of them objectionable because of their age."

Benedict felt as though he had been struck across the forehead by a sword. "May I know your reasons, ma'am?"

Mrs. Deblois stood and drew a shawl over her shoulders. "My decision is based on the certain knowledge that it is what my husband would want."

"As I wasn't acquainted with the late Mr. Deblois—"

"My husband isn't dead, General," Mrs. Deblois proudly raised her head. "He held his own opinions privately during the early days of the trouble when Sam Adams was inciting the uninformed and starting riots. Mr. Deblois was convinced that there would be no war, but he has paid for his error."

Benedict felt awkward and embarrassed. "Is your husband a Tory, ma'am?" he asked, finding his voice at last.

"I don't understand these labels, General Arnold. Mr. Deblois is a dedicated, loyal subject of King George to whom he pledged his allegiance when he was first elected a member of the provincial legislature many years ago. He retired from the political arena when ruffians took seats that belonged to gentlemen, but his convictions did not change."

Benedict's face burned.

Benedict found life in Boston intolerable after his bid for the hand of Betsy Deblois had been rejected. Having inactively, he took a leave of absence, his first since the start of the Quebec campaign. He arrived in New Haven in February, 1777, and immediately began to put his personal business affairs in order. He was short of capital, Spry and cagey, Halas sidestepped questions hurled at him about the possibility of his retiring from the league he helped originate more than 40 years ago.

Morris, who rambled 61 yards with an interception staging the Bears' first touchdown, was by far the club's most valuable player. Not only for his interception but for his harassing charges at Tittle and his deadly tackling of Giant runners.

"Sure I was trying to go all the way with that interception," said Morris. "I'm no halfback but I was afraid of being hit."

O'Bradovich, one of the Bear young bloods, was beside himself. "Wasn't it a great catch? I grabbed it with one hand. All I wanted to do was go, go, go. Reminded me of the passes I used to catch when I was at Illinois."

The Giant refused to alibi for their third title loss in as many years despite an obvious injury to Tittle. Tittle was hit from the side in the second quarter and had to leave the game. He came back and played the entire second half on a wobbly left knee.

Savings Big Bite on Cuban Checks

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) - "Voluntary savings" take 20 million pesos monthly from Cuban pay checks, the anti-Castro Revolutionary Workers Federation said today.

The exile organization said pressure is put on workers to make ample deposits in the government savings system. It quoted a recently arrived refugee, Arnaldo Machado, as saying there is so much red tape that workers can't withdraw deposits.

Average deposits by 2 million workers, the report said, are 10 pesos monthly. A peso is officially pegged at $1.

"All this talk about not being able to win the big ones is a lot of bunk," said Sherman. "Tittle has played in more big ones in the last few years than anybody around and he has won more than his share. Most men would not have gone out there in the second half but he did."

since the Continental Congress had not yet repaid him the vast sums he had spent to finance the march into Canada.

Hannah poured him a fresh cup of hot Dutch chocolate and began to leaf through stacks of the Gazette and Pennsylvania Journal, the capital's two newspapers which the courier had brought with the mail. She read idly, paying little attention to the political articles that dominated both newspapers, but finally an item in the Gazette of Feb. 19 caught her eye. "Generals Are Promoted," she read.

Benedict had not heard her; he was scowling at the long communication he was reading. Hannah nervously dabbed at her mouth with a linen napkin. "Has your claim been rejected?"

"They've granted me $11,000, but they want more specific proof that I spent the other $55,000 on my men." He pounded the table so hard that the dishes rattled. "The stupid idiots seem to think I had nothing better to do on the retreat from Canada than keep a set of neat accounts that could be submitted in duplicate to a Congressional committee."

He took an envelope from her on which he recognized the handwriting of Alexander Hamilton. "This is from Washington's personal aide." Breaking the seal with a shaking hand, he unfolded a long letter. "Washington has written to me himself."

Hannah was relieved.

Benedict began to read aloud in a flat voice: "It is needless for me to say much upon a subject which must undoubtedly give you a good deal of uneasiness. I confess I was surprised when I did not see your name on the list of major generals, and was so fully of the opinion that there was some mistake in the matter, that I hoped you would take no hasty step before the intention of Congress was fully known. The point does not now admit of a doubt, and is of so delicate a nature, that I will not even undertake to advise you. Your own feelings must be your guide."

"As no particular charge is alleged against you, I do not see upon what ground you could demand a court of inquiry. Besides, public bodies are not amenable for their actions; they place and displace at pleasure, and all the satisfaction that an individual can obtain when he is overlooked is, if innocent, a consciousness that he has not deserved such treatment for his honest exertions." Benedict held a hand over his eyes for a moment and laughed harshly. "Small consolation."

Kentucky Has Grip on That Coveted Spot

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Oregon State, Villanova, LaSalle, and Kansas State are brand new possessors of major tournament titles, but Kentucky's Wildcats have a grip on the biggest brass ring of them all—the No. 1 spot.

Col. Adolph Rupp's drawing Wildcats, just voted the nation's No. 1 college basketball team, made a premature celebration of the position with an 86-64 romp over New Orleans Loyola in the first round of the Sugar Bowl tournament Monday night.

The Wildcats, who won their own invitational tournament, will seek their second tourney title and their 10th straight victory against tough Duke in the New Orleans tournament tonight.

Duke, now 7-2, beat Auburn 82-67 in the other first round game.

At the same time, Oregon State was busily taking the Far West Classic title for the eighth straight time. Villanova was winning the Madison Square Garden Holiday Festival. Kansas State was copping the Big Eight and LaSalle was gaining the Quaker City tourney titles.

Oregon State, 10-1 for the season and ranked eighth in the nation, whipped Brigham Young 68-58 for the Far West title it never has lost. No. 10 Villanova, guided by Wally Jones and powered by Jim Washington, outlasted Minnesota 77-73 in Madison Square Garden.

Kansas State squeaked past defensively tough Oklahoma State 59-55 at Kansas City and LaSalle edged St. Bonaventure 83-80 at Philadelphia.

Host Texas Western gained the only other major title, whipping Denver 53-42 in the final of the Sun Carnival at El Paso, Tex.

In the opening round of the Charlotte, N.C. Holiday, seventh-ranked Davidson won its eighth straight, 90-73 over Penn. while Princeton and Bill Bradley outscored Texas 84-71 in the other first round. Princeton and Davidson will play for the title tonight.

In other major, non-tourney games, Louisville beat Ohio University 69-61. Virginia Tech turned back George Washington 68-76. Navy edged Georgia 57-52. Purdue routed Dartmouth 101-53. Xavier of Ohio handled Tulsa 63-71. Bradley outlasted Arizona 67-59. Toledo took Penn State 81-65. Arizona State nipped Stanford 61-60 and Bowling Green beat Wittenberg 67-58.

Clarke Looks Forward to New Meets

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Ron Clarke, newest sensation among the world's distance runners, is looking forward eagerly to the American indoor campaign starting with the Los Angeles Times meet Feb. 8.

"I know it must sound silly," the slender, Melbourne accountant and world record-holder in the 10,000 meters and six miles said. "But I am far more excited over this trip to the United States than I would be going to the Rome Olympics."

"The reason is I love competition for competition's sake—week in and week out. Gold medals and championships don't particularly interest me. I want to win them certainly, but mainly I just like to run."

Clarke, the 6-foot, 164-pound frustrated miler, excited the track world Dec. 18 when he ran 10,000 meters in 24 minutes, 56.4 seconds and six miles in 27:17.6, both world records. The metric distance is 376 yards longer than six miles.

The feat was achieved in the obscure Emil Zatopek Trophy

Close Battle Seen in the Rose Bowl

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer
PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A close battle, probably settled by Illini Jim Plankenhorn's accurate toe, seems destined in the New Year's Day Rose Bowl football game between third-ranked Illinois and "unwanted" Washington.

Illinois is rated a one-touchdown favorite. Sunny weather is expected.

On the Big Ten side of the fence, at least, the men who should know best—coaching rivals of Illinois' Pete Elliott—see the Illini battling for their life against a Husky squad primed by a master Big Game mentor, Jumbo Jim Owens.

The Huskies bring a dull 6-4 won-loss record into their third Rose Bowl appearance in five years. That's the poorest regular season record ever sported by a Rose Bowl representative.

Off-printed suggestion here has been that Southern California was the best Rose Bowl potential by far.

But coaches of both the Big Six—which this season had an Alphonse and Gaston act in its title race—and the Big Ten which stubbed its Rose Bowl toe on Washington in 1960 and 1961, admit Owens is the greatest when it comes to getting his Huskies snarling and snapping for the Big Game.

Owens really sewed up the free-for-all Big Six race on Nov. 2 with a 22-7 upset of Southern California at Seattle. That was Washington's inspirational win this year and comarated with Owens' successive Rose Bowl shockings of Wisconsin (44-8) in 1960 and national champion Minnesota (17-7) in 1961.

Owens had approximately one week more hard-hitting Rose Bowl preparations than did Illinois, which was chased indoors by sub-zero Midwest weather after both teams began drills Dec. 16.

The importance of Plankenhorn's field goal artistry—he booted seven as the Illini bounced from a 2-7 record to the Big Ten title in one surprising year—is reflected in the comment of two coaching Rose Bowl losers to Washington.

Wisconsin's Mill Bruhn predicted a 17-14 Illini victory Wednesday. Minnesota's Murray Warmath foresaw a close, low scoring game with Illinois winning by one score—either one point, three points or seven points.

The 50th Rose Bowl game will be televised and broadcast by NBC beginning at 5 p.m., EST.

Navy's crusading Middies have been hit in their four-star backfield just two days before the showdown struggle with top-ranked Texas in the Cotton Bowl, one of four New Year's Day classics bringing together seven of the top eight college football teams in the country.

Pat Donnelly, the jarring fullback in the Navy backfield that includes All-America quarterback Roger Staubach, halfback Johnny Sai and flanker Ed Orr, stretched a hamstring muscle in his left leg during practice Monday.

"He went down like a shot," said Coach Wayne Hardin. "He is going to start the game, but we won't know what he is going to be able to do until the game starts. If he can go, he'll go. If he can't we'll have to get along without him."

The injury was considered a severe blow to Navy's chance of defeating the Longhorns in a game Hardin admits the second-ranked Middies want to win more than any single game this season. That includes the Army game in which Donnelly scored all three touchdowns.

"Texas is even more important than Army," says Hardin. "Texas is the national champion. The polls are over and we can't change that. But if we could be lucky enough to win, I think everyone would concede that this game was for the na-

Meet at Olympic Park here before a mere handful of spectators whom Clarke kiddingly referred to as "my relatives."

"I was shooting for the six-mile record," he said. "When I crossed the finish line I pulled up knowing I had beaten the record. Then I heard the crowd yelling 'go on and try for the 10,000 meters.'"

"I ran the additional 376 yards in 58 seconds. If I had been going all out I could have done it in 52 and could have lowered the mark even more."

Clarke chopped 26.8 seconds off the six-mile mark set by Sándor Iharos of Hungary and 32 seconds off the 10,000 meters record of Russia's Petr Bolintinov.

Loyola Five Displaced From No. 1 in Poll

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
The powerful Kentucky Wildcats, scoring points by the hundred, collected first place votes by the two dozen in this week's Associated Press college basketball poll and took over the lead from Loyola of Chicago today.

The Wildcats, 101-81 victors over Notre Dame in their only game last week, got an assist from Georgetown, D.C. which upset previously unbeaten Loyola in Philadelphia's Quaker City Tournament.

Loyola dropped to third in the rankings behind UCLA. The Bruins, winners of the Los Angeles Classic, are undefeated in nine games.

Kentucky collected 24 first place votes and 354 points in the balloting by a special panel of 37 regional selectors. UCLA, fourth a week ago, drew 10 votes for the No. 1 position and 335 points. Loyola, which did not have a first place vote, picked up 219 points. Points were awarded on a basis of 10 for a first place vote nine for second, eight for third, etc.

Cincinnati moved up one notch to fourth on the strength of victories over Kansas State and Tulsa. The Bearcats garnered 217 points, only two less than Loyola.

Michigan, one of UCLA's three victims last week, fell two places to fifth. The Wolverines are followed by Vanderbilt, Davidson, Oregon State, Duke and Villanova.

The Top Ten with first place votes in parentheses and points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

1. Kentucky (24)	354
2. UCLA (10)	335
3. Loyola Chi.	219
4. Cincinnati	217
5. Michigan	194
6. Vanderbilt	188
7. Davidson (1)	160
8. Oregon State (2)	121
9. Duke	66
10. Villanova	50

Chargers Are Getting Set for Playoff

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The San Diego Chargers are warming up with a big assist from the weather for their Sunday game with the Boston Patriots to decide the championship of the American Football League.

The Chargers held a Monday workout—their first of the season on that day—as the temperature went to a Dec. 30 record high of 82 degrees. A high of 79 is called for today.

Somewhat cooler weather is expected by the time the Patriots arrive Wednesday night from the chilly confines of their home city.

The game between the league's Western and Eastern Division champions will be their third of the season. San Diego won the previous encounters 17-13 and 7-6.

The Chargers learned while doing it to treat the Patriots with respect, particularly because of their daring defensive play which San Diego Coach Sid Gillman calls "feast or famine football." He admits, however, that his Chargers haven't feasted on it yet.

The Patriots in the previous games swarmed through to get at veteran quarterback Tobin Rote, even at the apparent risk of leaving Charger pass receivers uncovered.

Boston's middle linebacker Nick Buoniconti is especially respected.

Rote says of Buoniconti, "I know I will see him coming at me plenty."

Navy's No. 1 Rooter Is a Texan

By HERB THOMPSON
ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Navy's No. 1 rooter in the Cotton Bowl Wednesday will be a 56-year-old Texas admiral whose enthusiasm for sports matches that of any Midshipman at the Naval Academy.

He's Rear Adm. Charles C. Kirkpatrick, a native of San Angelo and superintendent of the academy.

Attending the bowl game which pits No. 2-ranked Navy against No. 1 Texas in a test of national football power will be one of his last official acts as superintendent. He leaves Jan. 11 for promotion to chief of naval personnel with the three-star rank of vice admiral.

In his two years as head of the academy, he has overseen some major advances in its curriculum to better prepare the 4,000 Midshipmen for duty in a rapidly changing Navy. But he also has seen to it that athletics did not decrease on the athletic fields as it increased in the classrooms.

Kirkpatrick, a lean six-footer whose weather beaten features reflect his years at sea on submarines and surface ships, is a familiar figure at all of the Navy practice fields.

He leaves his office a few minutes early each afternoon for a swing by the various activities and a personal chat with players, who get a few words of encouragement for the game coming up. The grin is wide and friendly and a bond of mutual affection and respect exists between the older sea dog and the younger ones who soon will be manning ships.

A big game with an arch-rival will bring a personal letter from the admiral to the team captain, complimenting the team on its performance in victory or reassuring it in defeat.

And no pep rally would be complete without a fighting speech from "Uncle Charlie," who in his Midshipman days was a member of the pep committee.

Nebraska, Auburn Ready for Battle

By GENE PLOWDEN
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Auburn and Nebraska, poised for their Orange Bowl football game Wednesday, watched Miami's changing weather today and agreed it could affect the outcome of the game.

The Miami Weather Bureau forecast clearing and a little colder, with temperatures in the low or middle 60s by the 2 p.m. EST kickoff. But that was based on a low pressure system over the Gulf of Mexico developing a squall line that would end two days of rain.

Rival coaches, Ralph (Shug) Jordan of Auburn and Bob Devaney of Nebraska, claimed rain would be to the other fellow's advantage.

"Rain doesn't help anyone but it would hurt us more because Nebraska is bigger and plays control ball," Jordan said. "We need a solid footing to take good advantage of our plays to the outside."

Devaney, who canceled Monday's practice because of the day-long drizzle, disagreed with Jordan.

"Bad weather would hurt both teams," he said. "Auburn has better kicking, so it might help the Tigers more than us."

Auburn, No. 5 in the nation, will feature speed and mobility built around 205-pound Jimmy Sidle, the country's best running quarterback who gained 1,006 yards in 10 games, averaging 54 yards per carry. Sidle also completed 53 of 136 passes for ever, that his Chargers haven't feasted on it yet.

The Patriots in the previous games swarmed through to get at veteran quarterback Tobin Rote, even at the apparent risk of leaving Charger pass receivers uncovered.

Boston's middle linebacker Nick Buoniconti is especially respected.

Longhorns Not Afraid, Royal Says

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer
DALLAS (AP) — Darrel Royal's eyes flashed when he said it: "We aren't a bit afraid to put it on the line."

He was discussing the question of whether the national championship would be decided when his Texas football team plays Navy in the Cotton Bowl Wednesday.

Royal said his Longhorns already had received the trophies calling them national champions on the basis of 10 straight victories and that he didn't think once-beaten Navy, rated No. 2, could cause a return of the memories even if it won the Cotton Bowl game.

But one word led to another, and finally Royal said with some heat that he wouldn't be scared to put his title on the line.

Navy Coach Wayne Hardin and his players look upon the game as for the national championship although they admit that Texas already has been awarded it.

That, however, wouldn't cause the Middies to think anything else than that they had 706 yards and five touchdowns. Sixth-ranked Nebraska, using a multiple offense, has nine backs who carried the ball 30 or more times and five averaged 4.6 yards or more per try. The Cornhuskers drove 2,624 yards in 561 rushing plays for a 4.9 average.

Texas hasn't been particularly impressive but everybody knows it has the team to beat when they start playing for keeps. Rice has looked good most of the time. And Texas A&M gets better with each game.

The Aggies did better than expected in the All-College tournament last week, winning two intercollegiate games while losing one. And Bennie Lenox set a record for scoring in a single game.

Lenox poured 53 points through the hoop as the Aggies beat Wyoming 99-87 for third place. That's the most Southwest Conference player ever got in one game.

The Aggies meet floundering Southern Methodist at Dallas to open the conference race Saturday. SMU showed just how erratic and inept it could be by throwing away plentiful opportunities in an 80-70 loss to Stan-

Texas plays an apparently very weak Baylor at Austin to get its championship repeat bid on the way.

Rice opens the campaign against Texas Christian at Fort Worth.

Texas Tech, which is expected to develop fast, faces Arkansas at Lubbock. Tech has averaged 83.7 points per game. The Red Raiders ran and shot with the powerful Bartlesville Oilers Saturday, losing 105-93 but looking good.

Baylor and Texas have some tournament competition before they enter conference play. The Bears return to the Sun Carnival Tournament at El Paso today, meeting Clemson in a consolation game. Baylor was beaten 70-51 by Denver in making its start Saturday.

Its start will be at Charlotte, N.C., playing Princeton in the opening game of a Holiday Tournament.

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Thirty-two high school basketball teams compete in the 17th annual Northeast Arkansas High School Invitational Basketball Tournament, which opened today at Arkansas State College.

Dyess will defend its B Division championship but A Division titlist Jonesboro is not in the field this year.

Four B Division and four A Division games were scheduled today. The big one was the Paragould vs. Forrest City game at 8:05 p.m.

First round play will end Tuesday. Finals will be Saturday night in both divisions.
